

Anat Naschitz

Anat Naschitz is a Managing Director at OrbiMed. OrbiMed is a preeminent global healthcare investment firm with ~$15 billion under management across public and private asset classes. The firm covers the entire healthcare spectrum, investing in biopharmaceuticals, medical devices and digital health. Anat has over 20 years of healthcare experience, and currently serves on the boards of biotech, digital health and medical device companies.

Previously Anat created, invested in and advised companies across the entire healthcare spectrum in terms of stage and subject matter. She was an Associate Partner with McKinsey in London, where she managed strategy and M&A projects for senior management of the world's preeminent pharmaceutical and biotechnology companies. Among other accomplishments, Anat led pharmaceutical spinout work resulting in the creation of European biotech companies valued at billions of dollars. Post McKinsey Anat joined Apex Partners, where she focused on life sciences investments. She earned her M.B.A. at INSEAD and her LL.B. at Tel Aviv University.