
Peter H.W. van der Goes Jr.

Investment Banking

New York

Peter is co-head of Mergers & Acquisitions for the Healthcare Group within the Investment Banking Division. He is also global head of the healthcare information technology and digital health practice. Peter joined Goldman Sachs in 1999 and was named managing director in 2007 and partner in 2016.

Prior to joining the firm, Peter worked as a consultant at Booz Allen Hamilton.

Peter is a member of the Executive Board for the University of Pennsylvania's Varsity Soccer Program, overseeing professional mentoring for members of Penn's men's and women's soccer teams.

Peter earned a BA in English and a BS in Economics from the University of Pennsylvania, graduating magna cum laude and Phi Beta Kappa. He also earned a JD, Order of the Coif, and an MBA from the University of Pennsylvania, where he was a senior editor of Penn's Law Review.

