

YUVAL MOR

Co-Founder & CEO, Beyond Verbal

Leading the Beyond Verbal team, Yuval has more than 25 years of experience in managing early stage, hi-tech companies and taking them to successful exits – four in total. Yuval studied computer science and economics in Tel Aviv University and has an MSc. in management from Stanford.

Yuval brings to Beyond Verbal Communication his vast experience in building world-class teams; working in private and public companies; leading sales, marketing and strategy operations; and focusing on execution. He was previously VP sales and marketing at RADCOM (IPO), Pentacom (acquired by Cisco), GO Networks (acquired by NextWave) and the CEO of CACE Technologies (acquired by Riverbed). He also brings extensive international experience, acquired in particular from his involvement in leading worldwide sales and marketing activities during his employment in Silicon Valley.
