

Miriam Frieden, PhD, MBA
VP of Search & Evaluation
Novo Nordisk

In her role as Vice President for Search & Evaluation, Miriam Frieden drives the external innovation strategy to support R&D priorities at project, pipeline and corporate level. She leads a global team that scouts for external innovation opportunities and leads the evaluation of them. Miriam graduated as Master of Science in Chemistry from King's College, University of London, in 1996 and holds a PhD in Chemistry from University of Barcelona from 2000. She has an Executive Master of Business Administration (E-MBA) from Scandinavian International Management Institute (2009) and has also pursued executive education from INSEAD, France.

Miriam joined Novo Nordisk in 2011 and until taking up her present position in 2015, she had different leadership roles within Corporate Strategy and Competitive Intelligence in the company. Before joining Novo Nordisk she worked for Santaris Pharma within R&D and Business Development.