

Mr. Ehud Hausman

Senior Partner, Head of Hi-Tech Department, Patent Attorney, Advocate

Email: ehhausman@rcip.co.il

Ehud Hausman manages the Hi-Tech department of Reinhold Cohn & Partners, a department which handles a wide range of technologies including physics, software, hardware, electronics, medical devices etc.

Ehud has extensive experience in various aspects of intellectual property, including strategic consultation on the management of intellectual property assets for multinational companies, leading industrial companies and start-up companies. He has gained professional experience as a software engineer in various capacities in the hi-tech industry.

Ehud specializes in protecting inventions in the fields of computer science, physics and electronics, specializing in communications and telecommunications, internet, cellular technology, databases, multi-media and other software, hardware, and integrated systems and processes, semiconductor devices and semiconductor related processes, medical devices and methods of doing business.

Ehud has been personally commended in several leading international guides, including Chambers & Partners Global, Managing Intellectual Property (MIP IP Stars), IAM Patent 1000 (The World's Leading Patent Practitioners) and Expert Guides (Patent Law Practitioners).

Education: B.A. Computer Science, 1986, Technion - Israel Institute of Technology (cum laude); M.Sc. Computer Science, 1989, Technion - Israel Institute of Technology; LL.B., 2003, Interdisciplinary Center, Herzliya.

Memberships: AIPPI; Association of Israel Patent Attorneys; FICPI; Israel Bar Association; IsCham (Israel Chamber of Commerce China); LES, INTA. Ehud was a member of the Committee for the Introduction of Law for Protection on Topographies of Semiconductor Devices (appointed by the Minister of Justice).