

OSCAR CHEMERINSKI
Director

INTERNATIONAL FINANCE CORPORATION
Washington, D.C.

Oscar joined IFC in 1990 as an Investment Officer in the Africa Department. Four years later he moved to the Latin America & Caribbean Department where he actively contributed to the development of IFC's portfolio in the Latin America & Caribbean Region. In 2000, Oscar was promoted to Manager of the newly created Health and Education Department, and in 2001 he transferred to the Agribusiness Department. In 2007 he was appointed Director of the Agribusiness Department. He has played a key role in positioning Agribusiness as a priority sector for IFC, building strong relationships with local, regional and global players, expanding the range of products offered by IFC to Agribusiness clients, and delivering an investment program with a strong development impact. In September 2010 Oscar was re-assigned as Director of the newly created Manufacturing, Agribusiness and Services Department for Sub Saharan Africa, Latin America & the Caribbean. In 2014 Oscar was appointed as Director, Global Corporate Coverage, assuming responsibility for managing key Agribusiness client relationships.

Oscar came to IFC with extensive experience in the private sector, particularly in financial services, in Argentina, Brazil and the United States. He holds an MBA from the University of Chicago and is a Certified Public Accountant.

IFC, a member of the World Bank Group, is a global investor and advisor that is committed to promoting sustainable projects in developing member countries that are economically beneficial, financially and commercially sound, and environmentally and socially sustainable.
