

Michel Habib

Co-Founder, Managing General Partner

Portfolio board roles: Innovalve, Beyeonics Vision, Beyeonics Surgical, Wisdo

Michel is a seasoned Venture Capitalist and senior executive investing in MedTech & Biotech, with a track record as value builder throughout the whole spectrum of tech companies development, with exits of over 1.5 $Bn.

Former advisor to CBG Ltd, a multi Billion, London based, family office.

Former CEO of Hadasit Bio-Holdings (HDST), member of the BOD of Epitomee (TASE EPIT), former member of the BOD of Enlivex (Nasdaq, ENLV), Kahr Medical, Minovia, Omnix, Meditate (Acquired by Olympus $309M), Xenia Ventures and VLX Incubator, served as Chairman of Cellcure (Nasdaq LCTX) (Acquired by Roche Genentech $670M) and in Adicet Bio (Nasdaq ACET).

Former Managing Partner at MaC LP VC Funds, with significant exits (Lumenis, MST, Endochoice, Peptron).

Former Elron's BD Director, (Medingo, Given Imaging). Established and managed the Israel investment banking activity of ING Barings, served as VP Investment Banking at Cukierman & Co. During the 90's served as Israel's Economic Consul in Boston, and as Commercial Attaché to South Korea. As Officer (Academic Reserve, Captain Res.) in the IDF Navy, managed development of advanced Naval systems for the Navy's elite unit.

Mr. Habib holds a BSc in Aeronautical Engineering from the Technion. He is a graduate from Israel's foreign service economic cadet school, member of the Technion Alumni "100 Club" and graduate from the Global Executive Program on Negotiation (PON) at Harvard Law School.

Michel is a graduate and member of the 8400 Health Network.