

Dr. Idan Tamir – Executive Summary

Zichron Ya'akov, Israel

Expertise and Focus

Dr. Idan Tamir is a seasoned entrepreneur and executive in the biomedical, diagnostics, and medical device sectors, with over two decades of leadership in R&D, company founding, fundraising, clinical development, regulatory approval, and scaling manufacturing operations.

Career Highlights

- CEO, Qulab Medical (2017–present): Leads development of continuous metabolic monitoring systems; scaled chip fabrication; raised over $9M; secured $4M in non-dilutive grants; filed multiple patents.
- CTO and Co-founder, BMT Diagnostics: Launched integrated rapid diagnostic platforms; led ISO 13485-certified lab and manufacturing scale-up.
- President & CEO, RAD BioMed Accelerator: Co-founded 18 startups; led exits including SteadyMed (NASDAQ IPO, $216M acquisition), and Eon Surgical ($25M exit).
- Held senior roles at ImmunArray, Xenolith Medical, Virginia Life Science Investments, and Quark Pharmaceuticals, with achievements in business development, clinical trials, FDA/CE approvals, and strategic partnerships.

Education

- Ph.D. in Chemical Immunology, Weizmann Institute of Science
- M.Sc. in Immunology & Microbiology, Ben-Gurion University, Magna Cum Laude
- B.Sc. in Chemistry, with Distinction

Additional Credentials

- Senior lecturer (Technion MBA program)
- Published 15+ peer-reviewed papers and several patents
- Fluent in Hebrew and English
- Active consultant and advisor in diagnostics and med-tech investment