Sivan Sadan is the Founder & CEO of Or Capital, a company dedicated to building successful businesses and driving meaningful impact.

With a strong background in investment banking, venture capital, and executive leadership, she has held key roles, including CFO and Executive Vice President at HeraMED (ASX:HMD), where she focused on advancing women's healthcare.

Recognized as one of the 200 leaders in women's health by Women of Wearables in 2023, Sivan is a passionate advocate for improving women's health at every stage of life. She plays an active role in shaping menopause care policy through her volunteer work with the nonprofit Medonna, collaborating with experts, HMOs, and policymakers to drive systemic change