

Dr. Shai Melcer heads of the National Bio-convergence Program, working with multiple partners in government to promote the field as an economic driver via excellence in multi-disciplinary R&D, specialized human capital and infrastructure, and regulatory policy.

Shai is also an associate lecturer for Biotechnology at the Hebrew University.

Previously, Shai was -

- Co-founder of the GRAM Bio-Foundry
- CBO at Minovia Therapeutics
- CEO of BIOHOUSE
- Executive director of BioJerusalem (JDA)
- Co-founder of BioGiv

Shai has PhD and LLM degrees from the Hebrew University.