

Prof. Dror Harats

More than 30 years of both clinical and research in the field of medicine and biotechnology as well as a strong background in management of early to mid-stage biotechnology companies. professional and experienced consultant specializing in Biotechnology / Pharmaceutical healthcare companies

30 years' experience in "cutting edge" Research in Lipid Metabolism, Atherosclerosis and Vascular Biology. One of the pioneers who studied the role of the immune/inflammatory system in atherosclerosis and invented a new genetic tool for the treatment of angiogenesis, a process that plays a major role in cancer and cardiovascular disorders. KOL in the field of dyslipidemia and atherosclerosis both in Israel and abroad.

Published more than 200 peer-reviewed research papers and chapters in books and more than 40 patents. His research and publications rewarded him with numerous prizes and grants.

Current position

VP of R&D at the Sheba Medical Center, Tel Hashomer.

Chairman of the IRB Committee, Sheba Medical Center, Israel.

Professor of medicine in the department of biochemistry at the Sackler Faculty of Medicine, Tel-Aviv University

CEO Vascular Biogenics LTD, Israel.

Member of the Technological Infrastructure Committee, Ministry of Science

Chair of the Physician Scientist Program, Sheba Medical Center