

Long career in the prime minister office as an analyst and projects manager, including re-location to Bangkok, Thailand.

After coming back to Israel in 2019, spent almost 2 years in the ministry of finance as a conductor of central tenders.

B.A. in social science, M.a. in mediation, conflict management and negotiation (Com laude)