

Alban de la Sabliere
SVP, Head of Sanofi Partnering Sanofi, France

In November 2019, Alban de La Sablière was appointed SVP Global Head of Sanofi Partnering, that includes the Sanofi Ventures Fund, Business Development & Licensing and Alliance Management. He was previously SVP Head of Business Development & Licensing from October 2018. Over the last two years, Alban has overseen a repositioning of the Business Development activities in line with Sanofi strategy, including significant partnership deals with, Denali, Kiadis, Kymera, Biond, Mab Discovery, Nurix, and Translate Bio, and multiple ventures investments including Escient, Nodthera and Lava Therapeutics. Alban joined Sanofi in January 2016 as SVP, Head of Mergers & Acquisitions. In this role he led the Bioverativ, Ablynx and Protein Sciences acquisitions, and numerous portfolio-reshaping divestments, including the sale of Zentiva. Prior to joining Sanofi, Alban worked for Morgan Stanley, where he worked with Sanofi on a number of important deals, including the merger of Sanofi & Aventis and the acquisition of Genzyme.