

Miriam Guggenheim

Partner, Covington

Miriam Guggenheim is the chair of Covington's Israel Initiative and co-chair of the Covington's Food, Drug, and Device practice group. Miriam routinely assists clients in Israel navigate their most complex business problems, deals, and disputes. She also advises a broad range of major food and dietary supplement companies on achieving their marketing goals while minimizing regulatory litigation risks. As the food industry faces new challenges, Miriam remains at the forefront of legislative and regulatory changes and food policy and litigation trends. She draws on this deep knowledge and insight to advise clients on all aspects of food development and marketing.

Furthermore, Chambers USA notes Miriam is "incredibly sharp and very responsive," and a client reports, "I rely on Miriam tremendously to help me find ways forward in difficult and novel situations, and she never fails to deliver."
