

Dr. Moshik Cohen-Kutner, Co-Founder & CEO of Omnix Medical Ltd.

Dr. Cohen-Kutner graduated from the Hebrew University of Jerusalem and received his PhD from the faculty of Natural Sciences in the field of molecular and structural biochemistry. Dr. Cohen-Kutner's expertise include biochemistry, physiology, peptide design and peptide-based drug discovery. He has published prolifically and has been awarded numerous prizes and scholarships for his outstanding achievements.

Dr. Cohen-Kutner has over 20 years of expertise in management leading over 300 employees in a diversity of specialized fields.

Dr. Cohen-Kutner, co-founded Omnix Medical in 2015, co-designed Omnix's proprietary platform technology, and as Omnix Medical CEO, he has raised over $20M from private investors as well as from government grants, including the United States NIH (USA), Israeli Innovation Authority and the European Union.

Omnix Medical was ranked top 1% in the Horizon 2020 last cut-off, as one of Europe's 38 most promising start-ups and SMEs to receive substantial funding for the development and scale-up of ground-breaking innovations in Europe.

Dr. Cohen-Kutner has recruited the best top-tier Key Opinion Leaders for Omnix Advisory Board/BoD and has been leading the development of a novel chemical entity from idea to ongoing clinical trials.