

Dr. Yan Ostrovski

Co-Founder and CEO

Dr. Ostrovski is the co-founder and CEO of Neshima Medical. He holds a PhD from the Faculty of Biomedical Engineering of the Technion, and a BSc and MSc in Mechanical Engineering from Ben Gurion University (both cum laude). Since 2015, Yan has been leading Neshima, working on its business development and technology, and co-authored 10 scientific papers and two patents in the field of respiratory drug delivery. His work was awarded with several grants and prizes, Kamin grant, ERC-POC, Polak Foundation, Hershel Rich innovation award, Israeli ministry of science and technology (MOST) medical devices, MOST COVID-19 grants and more.