

Enrico Vanin - Chief Innovation Officer, International and Head of Aon Greece, Turkey and South Africa

Enrico was born in 1972 and has begun his working experience in 1999 in KPMG as Senior Consultant in charge of consultancy international projects concerning control governance.

Between 2004 and 2006 he worked in Luxottica as International Internal Audit and Compliance Manager for EMEA and Asia Pacific. Afterwards, he reached Aon as Chief Operating Officer.

In 2008 he was appointed CEO of Aon Hewitt Risk & Consulting (today Aon Advisory and Solutions), which operates as consulting services provider in several areas (healthcare, welfare and flexible benefit, automotive services, global risk consulting, claims administration outsourcing, on-line training).

From 2013 until the end of 2015 he was in charge of the Aon Group Swiss Branch, Aon Schweiz AG, as Executive Chairman.

In 2016, Enrico was appointed Chief Executive Officer of Aon S.p.A. with particular focus on Innovation and international relations.

In 2016 he was also appointed CEO of Global Safe Insurance Brokers S.r.l., an Aon Group company specialized in the creation and management of B2B2C solutions in the automotive sector.

From the end of 2020 to March 2022, as CEO of Aon S.p.A. in Italy he had the responsibility for Business Health, Affinity, Commercial Development Direction, AGRC & Consulting and Aon Mobility Business Lines.

In September 2021, he has been appointed in EMEA Co-Head of South-East Europe (Cyprus/ Greece/ Italy/ Malta/ Turkey) in all business lines and EMEA Head of Innovation.

Since April 1st, 2022, his role of Head of Innovation EMEA was extended internationally, taking on the title of Chief Innovation Officer, International.

Finally, since July 1st, 2023, he has also been appointed in EMEA Head of South Africa.

At the same time, he retains the position of Head of Greece and Turkey.
