

Yaacov Michlin
Yissum's President and CEO

Yaacov Michlin serves as Yissum's President and CEO since 2009. Yissum, the Tech Transfer company of the Hebrew University is the leading Tech Transfer company in Israel and one of the top 15 Tech Transfer companies in the world. Michlin has been leading more than 200 licensing deals, hundreds of research agreements with Israeli and multinational companies and the creation of more than 30 start up companies, including Yissum's new holding company Integra that acts as VC to fund biotech projects of Hebrew University. Michlin holds a Bachelor of Law and Economics, cum laude, and a Master of Law degree, both from Bar-Ilan University, Israel, and an MBA, cum laude, from the Technion, Israel.