

Dr.-Ing. Maja Rudinac

Dr.-Ing. Maja Rudinac is a director and co-founder of Robot Care Systems company that designs and builds autonomous healthcare aids for the care market. She also co-founded Robot Robots company, striving to make service robotics solutions available to both businesses and organizations as well as consumers and institutions.

She obtained PhD in robotics from Delft University of Technology where she worked as a co-leader of Delft Robotics Institute for interactive robots. Together with Robot Care Systems in 2015 she won the Rabobank Innovation award for healthcare and Shell Live wire award for the best young entrepreneur.

